Pastor's Notes

Dear Parishioners,

Thanks for a great Easter Sunday celebration last weekend - wasn't it great having a fuller church? We were so glad some of our Saturday evening parishioners joined us as well as other of your family members, visitors and neighbors.

Next weekend at the 9:30am mass we will be celebrating the First Communion of four of our children: Fahari Githingi, Sergio Ramos, Aluat Tong, and Miley Dalto-Young. Please welcome them to the table. We congratulate these young boys and girls and their families. We thank Kathyryne, their catechists and their parents for their preparation.

Speaking of Kathyryne, she has recently accepted an offer to become the full time Youth Minister of St Augustine's/St Mary's Baldwinsville. We thank her for her service with us and are grateful for her creativeness which she will bring to her new ministry. Please welcome Sue Spara who will become our new Director of Faith Formation - welcome Sue!

Tom Murphy has suggested we pray the prayer of St Theresa of Avila as we transition to new pastor: "Let nothing disturb you. Let nothing frighten you. All things are passing away. God never changes. Patience obtains all things. Whoever has God lacks nothing. God alone suffices."

Please take a Little White Book home with you to facilitate your Easter prayer.

Fr. John Rose

Jesus connects PEACE and FORGIVENESS in today's gospel. In our families we will only experience peace to the extent we forgive one another. Peace is purchased with the currency of forgiveness. When we allow our anger and pride to lock out others, we also lock out peace and harmony.

Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Unsurprisingly it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it too.

30 Days with Oscar Romero

Beatitude – Revolution stands for bringing down an order that dominates the world. The beatitudes overthrow the world's beliefs, planting the seeds of a transformation that will reach its final goal in the infinite horizon of the kingdom of heaven, to which Christ points.

Action: Place a copy of the Beatitudes where you will notice and read them often.

Prayer– If there were people of prayer among those who map the direction of our country and economy, we would live in a world without injustice, repression, or torture.

Action: Today in your prayer, share something intimate with God that you have been holding back.

Division –Not everyone will be pleased with the word, which will always clash against those who reject it.

Action: For the next week, pray for someone with whom you disagree on important social and political issues. Whether a public figure or someone you know personally, ask God to bless them with happiness and wisdom.
